

At the heart of the mission of the Jesuits in Britain is our desire to help people to a deeper and more fruitful relationship with Jesus Christ.

To this end, we are looking to employ three new staff members to support our Spirituality work. Two will be based at St Beuno's Jesuit Spirituality Centre, a large residential retreat house in north Wales which offers a full programme of retreats and courses. The other will be based at the London Jesuit Centre (LJC), a centre of formation in Spirituality, Theology and Social and Environmental Justice in the heart of London. The closing date for applications is 1st December 2021.

St BEUNO'S
JESUIT SPIRITUALITY CENTRE

Spirituality Team Member

St Beuno's seeks a new team member to help deliver their programme of retreats and training starting on 1st February 2022, or as soon as possible thereafter.

The role will involve directing on the Ignatian Individually Guided Retreats, training and duties involved with the general running of the centre.

Salary: £26,500 - £29,000 p.a., depending on experience.

Trainee Spirituality Worker

St Beuno's is also offering a trainee post for six to twelve months to someone with training in Ignatian spiritual direction who wishes to gain experience through working as a retreat director under supervision. There will also be opportunities for further training and development.

Salary: £20,000 p.a. pro rata.

Accommodation for both St Beuno's posts may be available.

Spirituality Team Member

The London Jesuit Centre seeks a new team member to help deliver their programme of retreats, courses and training starting on 4th January 2022, or as soon as possible thereafter. The role could be full-time or part-time. Duties will include designing and delivering courses and retreats in Ignatian spirituality, as well as the training of prayer guides and spiritual directors.

Salary: £27,000 - £30,000 p.a. (or pro rata), depending on experience.

LJC interviews will take place on 17th December 2021.

St Beuno's interviews will take place on 14th, 15th, or 16th December 2021.
